Staunton Convention.

spondence of the Alexandria Gazette. STAUNTON, August 17.—The speech of Hon. Duncan K. McRae, of North Carobefore the Douglas Convention last ight, was one of very decided ability. The regarder portion of it was devoted to a refuof Gov. Steven's apology for the sesion at Baltimore, which he accomplished ery successfully in the opinion of many, nonstrating that the secession was a debetate and pre-determined purpose in any Mr. McRae contended that Wm. L. yantey with his Alabama delegation, headed ontrolled the movement, with a view he dissolution not merely of the Democratparty, but of the Federal Union. He rep-Mr. Yancey as a bolter upon all ocons from the regular Democratic organiion, regarded all who followed him as isorganizers, and for himself, could make meessions to the disunionists without a feiture of his honor and veracity. His perchange was received with much satisfaction, and was frequently interrupted by rounds

After Mr. McRae took his seat, Mr. Chas. Irving took the stand in response to repeated calls, and spoke at some length. Mr. I. was scathingly severe upon the Seceders, was sommer, who he denounced in unmeasured terms as traitors and apostates. He said that the mue cause of the division in Virginia, was true cause same squabble between the friends Wise and Hunter. He scouted the idea their having left the Convention from de and declared "that he would as on discuss a question of honesty with a convict in the penitentiary, as talk about principle with a seceder." During his entire speech Mr. Irving dealt in the vernac-Jar-the unadulterated Anglo-Saxon-and the Breckinridge men, many of whom were resent, winced like galled jades under the scrible exceriation.

The idea of a compromise is treated with soon by all the prominent speakers in the Convention. They regard the Breckinridge party as a disuntion party, with which they cannot affiliate, unless they repent of their nast folly and wickedness, and return to the regular Democratic organization in sack-cloth and ashes. One of the delegates said to me but a few moments ago, that the result of a compromise would be a split in the Douglas ranks, a large portion of whom would go over to the support of Bell and Everett.-What a glorious thing it would be if all of them, in view of their helpless and impotent ondition, would pursue that wise and patrictic course. As both factions seemed so insanely joined to their idols, however, all that the true friends of the Union and the constitution have to do is, to "let them alone," and they will assuredly work out their own

The Convention was thrown into some little excitement this morning in consequence c, a resolution offered by Col Baylor, of Augusta, binding the delegates to abide by the action of the body.

Mr. Irving, backed by others, vehemently apposed the resolution, contending that if they acquiesced in its adoption and remained in the Convention, they might be forced into the support of Breekinridge; and indicated any emergency. The resolution was finally with drawn.

Another matter which occupied the greater part of the morning session, was the Report of the Committee charged with the preparation of an address. The Committee, through their Chairman, Mr. Collin, reported that it was impracticable to prepare the address for the consideration of the Convention, and adosed the appointment of five gentlemen named in the Report, to attend to the matter et some future time.

The Report was unanimously adopted, but in a few moments a re-consideration was moved by Mr. Yancey, of Rockingham, on the ground that none of the gentlemen selected were from Western Virginia, and for the further reason, that he was unwilling to authorize by his vote, the issuing of an address, the best feeling was manifested. which he and others who did not endorse Squatter Sovereighty might not be willing to subscribe. Objections were made by others, and the Report was at last unanimously reconsidered and haid upon the table.

At the afternoon session, no business was transacted. Telegraphic communications have been passing between Committees of the two Conventions during the day, in regard to a reconciliation, but with no prospect da compromise. I am told that a private dispatch received from Charlottesville about samet, states that the Charlottesville Convention will certainly frame a straight-out Breckinridge ticket, and desire that the Staunton Convention will ratify it! This is end, but it is equally true that the Staunton Convention will frame a clean Douglas ticket, and reject all propositions except the penitent return of the bolters, as was remarkby a delegate this afternoon, "with tears trickling down their cheeks."

The report of the Committee appointed to form the electoral ticket was postponed for the purpose of awaiting communications from the other side, but it was determined that the Convention would proceed to the consideration of the report at 8 o'clock P. M. The private dispatch referred to indicates that there was no need for any postponement, and the ticket will undoubtedly be fixed to-

Thus has the last hope of a reunion of the Democracy passed away: and the Electoral vote of Virginia is secured for Bell and Everett. The Convention indicates, so far as numbers are concerned, that the Douglas party is not as strong as was supposed, but they have the necessary "backbone," which may augment their strength greatly before the day of election.

Charlottsville Convention.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, Aug. 18, 8 o'clock, A. M.—As I telegraphed last night, yesterday evening's session closed in a storm. The questions that gave rise to the excitement J. Mehaffey. were two competing propositions; the motion offered by Mr. Cooke, of Wythe, but whose real paternity was attributable to Gov. Smith, and the substitute offered by Gen. Banks, of Madison. Upon these two ons, divided the ultra, uncompromising | meeting of the M. E. Church wil oneiliation, and also the Eastern and Western delegations.

judgment of this Convention threatening the most certain and immediate perils to our noble and charished Union.

Gen. Banks' substitute reads as follows: Resolved. That as the rights of the South is the paramount issue in this canvass, we most cordially invite men of all parties to unite with us in securing the election of Breckinridge and Lane.

The moving considerations that led to a was not clearly explained. Judging from the antecedents of the delegates who respectively favored the two propositions, there is, in my apprehension, no doubt that they who voted for Banks' substitute, were influenced by one or the other of the motives, either from an unwillingness under any exigency to east the electoral vote of Virginia for Douglas or Bell, or from an opposition to the ted in the closing sentence of the Smith resolution. From these two combined motives a substitute was adopted upon a scale vote of sixty seven thousand votes, by a majority of have seen her tottering about the boat. The a few hundred.

Before, however, the vote was officially announced, a delegate from Warren county, who said he had no particular wish upon the issue, changed his vote from the substitute to the original motion, thus carrying the the four Commissioners of the Public Works orignal resolution by about 1700 majority.

At this juncture the Eastern men, the ultra Breckinridge supporters, resorted to all the legitimate parliamentary tactics for de- took place. As a last resort for peace and arriving down at tide-water. harmony, the supporters of Smith's resolution, consented to a reconsideration of the vote, and another scaled vote to be taken after Senator Hunter's speech at night.

The Hon. R. M. T. Hunter spoke to an immense audience in the Armory last night. The vote was taken at 10 o'clock, but its result has not been officially announced .ing the taking of the vote, a message was received from Staunton intimating a hopeless effort at reconciliation. The announcement was received with much bitterness of feeling on the part of many, whilst others were glad that the door had been closed in the face of all reconcilation.

> Charlottesville Convention. CHARLOTTESVILLE, Aug. 18, P. M .- The

Convention re-assembled this morning at The report of the Virginia delegates to the Charleston and Baltimore conventions, detailing the reasons for their action, was received and ordered to be printed. A resolution was, also, adopted, instructing the electors to vote as a unit, so as to prevent the election of Lincoln, if Breckinridge cannot be elected.

The electoral ticket was revised, purged of Douglas men, and re-appointed as follows: Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk City; Henry L. Hopkins, of Petersburg: J. R. Edmunds, of Halifax; Thomas T. Tredway, of Prince Edward; James L. Kemper, of Madison; James Lyons, of Richmond City: Richard A. Claybrook, of Northumberland; Beverley B. Newman, of Kanawha; Zedekiah Kidwell, of Marion.

Senator Mason then on invitation, addressed the convention in a speech of an hour and

Mr. Mason's speech was of a strong ultra character, and clearly protrayed the evils of the hour, and distinctly and boldly led the mind to the inevitable conclusion that disunion was the only remedy. It will do immense good to the national movement inaugurated, and now revolutionizing the hearts and minds of the people under the banner of Bell and Everett.

Mr. Mason's speech was loudly applauded. A resolution was then adopted, requesting or publication, copies of the speeches of Senators Mason and Hunter.

And the Convention adjourned sine die. The delegates have generally left for their respective homes. They left dispirited as to the prospects of success, and with increased bitterness toward the Douglass party. Lacey and Ambler have gone to Staunton to meet McRae and Foote in debate.

with the terms of sale. LAWRENCE B. TAYLOR. ang 20-2awts Trustee. TALUABLE FARM FOR SALE AT PUB-V LIC AUCTION .- With a view to partition amongst the joint-owners, I shall offer for sale at public auction, on the premises, on Saturday, the 1st day of September, 1860, the farm on which I reside, known as "MOUNT STIRLING," and containing about 500 ACRES. This farm lies within five miles of the town of Warrenton, from which place there is a Railroad connection with the cities of Richmond, Alexandria, &c. There is upon the place an abundance of wood and timber, and a plentiful supply of never failing water. It is divided into nine fields, most of which are well taken in grass, and all under good enclosures. The improvements consist of a commodious and comfortable DWEL-LING HOUSE, and all necessary out buildings, the latter having been recently erected. The land is of fine quality, lies well for cultivation, and is in excellent condition. THE TERMS OF SALE will be accommodating, and will be made known on the day of sale. Title unquestionable. Address for further information, the undersigned, or James V. Brooke, esq., Warrenton, Va. R. ations for a wheat crop, by fallowing.

BAZIL G. TAYLOR. Culpeper County, aug 13-wts WHITE SULPHUR WATER FROM THE WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, GREEN BRIER COUNTY, VA .- The long established reputation of the WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS for the cure of Chronic diseases, renders comment upon their medicinal efficacy unnecessary.

For many years the waters of these Springs have been transported and used by persons at their own homes, and, experience fully testifies. with the same beneficial effects that have resulted from their use when drank fresh at the fountain

These waters are gently APERIENT and very decidedly ALTERATIVE. Their great forte as a remedy, and the quality above all others that has given to them their high reputation, is their alterative power, or their peculiar operative influences, by which they stimulate Glandular secretions, resolve Chronic inflamations, overcome obstructions in the smaller vessels, and throw off morbid accumulations from diseased organs, thus producing the alterative or profound changes demanded in almost every case of Chronic disease.
As an APERIENT and ALTERATIVE, the range of diseases to which they are applicable will be apparent to medical men-such for instance.

as Chronic affections of the Stomach, Bowels Liver, Kidneys, Skin, de., &c. Upon the functions of the organs generally, they exert marked effects, stimulating those that are inactive, and establishing healthy secretions in such as have departed from a normal condition.

In DYSPEPSIA and in Chronic irritations of mucous cout of the Stomach and Bowels, they are employed with the happiest results. In the various forms of LIVER DISEASE, CHRONIC DIARRHEA is often cured by them, after other remedies have been ineffectually tried. To COSTIVENESS of the Bowels and to PILES, they are well adapted. In the seceral forms of KIDNEY and BLAD DER AFFECTIONS, unattended with inflamation, they are very serviceable.

To the several forms of CHRONIC OBSTRUC-

TIONS, &c., preuliar to females, their alterative influences are often eminently useful. NEURALGIA and the various nercous diseases, when they are the result of organic derangements, are treated with great success by these waters. In CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, their known efficacy is coeval with the early history of the Springs. As a pallistive of a most excellent effect in GOUT, their value has been long appreciated.

liar affection that results from the abuse of Mercury in syphilitic affections, a full course of the Water stands unrivalled in its curative powers. Ar Pamphlets descriptive of the medicinal character and applicabilities of the Waters furnished gratis, on application to the Agents.
